Editor Discovers Two Special Thetas and Much More

One of the great pleasures of being a magazine editor is receiving mail from readers. As odd as it sounds, an editor can become very fond of her publication. She comes to regard it as something of a cross between an alter ego and a pet, and she is thrilled when other people want to discuss her "baby."

Since becoming managing editor of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine, I've "talked" to a lot of terrific people through the mail. I've gotten notes from sisters whom I haven't seen in more than a decade; I've received clippings about accomplished Thetas and letters suggesting articles; I've gotten some humorous letters and some very touching letters. All of this correspondence has been thoroughly enjoyable, and I hope that my mailbox continues to be full.

In May, my mail included a packet from former Grand President Lissa Bradford. She sent me some letters, photos, and clippings from the estate of former Grand President Ellen Hofstead. Bradford wrote, "The letters from Ellen's friends and fellow officers give you an idea of how revered and loved she was."

And they do. The letters allude to the high regard in which the writers held Hofstead, and they include references to her intelligence and writing ability. I am grateful that I had a chance to speak with Ellen Hofstead before she died. I had telephoned her in conjunction with an article I was writing, and she was very kind and gracious. She told me about another former Grand President, Jinny Edwards, who also recently died. "Jinny will be greatly missed but remembered with love and admiration for the leadership she provided," Hofstead said.

Kappa Alpha Theta will miss and is proud to remember both Ellen Hofstead and Jinny Edwards.

Ellen Bowers Hofstead, Alpha Eta/Vanderbilt, served as Grand President from 1952 to 1956. She had previously served as Grand Treasurer and District President.

Following her presidential term, Hofstead was Theta's delegate to the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) for 21 years. When she retired in 1977, Panhellenic friends from 26 delegations attended a party to honor her for "distinguished and devoted service." Phyllis Pryor, Kappa Kappa Gamma, who served with Hofstead on NPC, said, "Ellen was quietly influential. She was a warm and wonderful leader, mentor, and friend."

In addition to her work for Theta and the Greek community, Ellen Hofstead was also very involved in her Nashville, Tenn., community. She was one of the founders of Harpeth Hall and Ensworth schools, holding a life appointment to the board of Harpeth Hall. Her other interests included United Way, the Nashville Symphony Guild, Junior League of Nashville, and Nashville Opera Association.

Virginia Speidel Edwards, Alpha Tau/Cincinnati, was Grand President from 1964 to 1968. She served the Fraternity in a variety of capacities before becoming Grand President, and when her term was over, she continued to be involved with Theta. As Special Gifts Campaign Chairman, she spearheaded fund-raising efforts for Fraternity Headquarters.

Trying to reach snowbound Utah for a chapter installation many years ago, Edwards had to cross the country three times by plane. "She was the most loyal person to an organization that I have ever known," said Milie Jenkins McVey, Alpha Gamma/Ohio State. "She was so dedicated over such a long period of time."

Edwards's community involvement included the Red Cross, United Appeals, YWCA, and Children's Hospital of Columbus, Ohio.

"Jinny just loved the Fraternity," Ellen Hofstead said during her telephone conversation with me. Then she paused and laughed. "It was one of the things we had in common!"

Much of the mail we have recently received has concerned rush, and we have filled this issue of The Magazine with many rush-related features. Our cover, "Doors of Theta," welcomes new members and also invites collegians and alumnae back to their chapter facilities. The 1995 Rush Personnel Directory begins on page 20. (When using this directory or reading other lists and captions, you may want to refer to the Greek alphabet on page 29.) "Perspectives: NPC Rush Recommendations," page 5, explores NPC and Theta's impact on rush reform; "The New Rush," page 18, addresses the on-going evolution of member selection.

Summer in Indianapolis tends toward the hot and humid, so much time is spent trying to keep cool. Whatever you're doing this summer, we hope you have time to relax and catch up on your reading—including The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine.

(Sharp-eyed readers of the spring issue may have noticed that we were planning for the summer issue to be a tabloid. We hope you were pleased to see The Magazine in its familiar format.)

Loyally,

Liz Appel Rinck

NPC Rush Recommendations: Back to the Basics

The concept of a no-frills rush is a familiar one to sorority women today. At its 1991 biennial meeting, the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) adopted a nine-point rush resolution which provides guidelines for a no-frills rush. The impetus was to help NPC member groups focus more on personal interaction and less on entertainment to better control the message being sent through rush and to appeal to today's college women.

According to Lissa Luton Bradford, Alpha Eta/Vanderbilt, NPC Delegate, the 26 member groups of NPC came to the realization that rush must change as the profile of the woman student changes. "Today's college women aren't as interested in the skits and balloons of the '80s," Bradford explains. "Economic and other factors, such as the image of the Greek system, have an impact on rush and are beyond our control. The message we're sending is one factor, however, that we can control. If we're not telling the right story, how do we know if the women are joining for the right reason?"

The nine-point rush recommendations, which promote the main purpose of rush—for rushees and members to get to know one another—include:

1. Establish guidelines for rush budgets and set a cap on rush expenses including the value of all donated goods and services in the cap figure.
2. Eliminate all outside decorations.
3. Confine all rush entertainment within the chapter house or other rush facility.
4. Evaluate all rush skits as to length and content.
5. Discourage the use of rush skits at the first round of parties.
6. Discourage elaborate costuming and the purchase of special rush outfits.
7. Eliminate all gifts, favors, and preference letters or notes for rushees until they have accepted bids.
8. Develop conversation and interviewing skills.
9. Follow NPC recommendations and release figures.

Helen Edwards Woodward, Alpha Omicron/Oklahoma, Vice-President Membership, says that implementation of the rush recommendations requires a joint effort between the college Panhellenics and chapters. "Kappa Alpha Theta endorses the philosophy behind NPC's recommendations; however, in an effort to remain competitive, all women's groups must adopt the policies on the individual campuses. We're really counting on the college Panhellenics to take action at the grassroots level," Woodward explains. "When the opportunity presents itself to make the change to a no-frills rush on a campus, we work with that chapter to make the changes necessary."

Making friends and finding sisters is still the focus of rush.

To further study the rush process and build on the rush recommendations, NPC appointed a Rush 2000 Committee at its 1993 meeting to look to the future of rush and what will appeal to the students in the next century. "We want to bring the outstanding students to us and appeal to their needs," Bradford says.

The Rush 2000 Committee is a fact-finding committee that will make a report and further recommendations at NPC's October meeting. NPC has also invited national rush officers to the fall meeting to discuss problems, opportunities, and future direction for all NPC groups.

In summary, Bradford says, "We need to be spending our time on the most important aspect of rush—getting the women to us, getting them involved, and getting to know them. The best way to do this is through the combined effort and trust of the member organizations and college Panhellenics. The goal is to find and create the most successful rush program for college women." ■

By Karen Schultz Alter, Γ/Butler, the Fraternity's Director of Communications.

Individual Achievements

Julie Johnson, Beta Gamma/Colorado State, has been named executive director of the Poudre Valley Hospital Foundation. Johnson has served as assistant director of the foundation since 1987. She used her grant-writing and fund-raising skills to acquire $885,000 in funding for the Poudre Valley Prenatal Program, endowments, and campaigns and $335,000 for other health-related projects. Johnson's major goal is to expand fund-raising efforts to support hospital and community health projects.

Jane Markey, Beta Pi/Michigan State, was among four new appellate judges sworn in to serve the Third District of the Michigan Court of Appeals. Markey received her law degree from T.M. Cooley Law School. After graduating she served as a clerk and a prehearing attorney for the state Court of Appeals. She then spent 10 years as a trial attorney with a Grand Rapids law firm before she was elected there as a district judge in 1990.

Sandra Shapard, Delta/Illinois, is the author of the recently published Minor Miracles. Shapard's book of poetry is illustrated by her son Nathan, an Art/Archeology major at Spring Hill College. She has also written three books, Woman Sounds, Night Flight 35, and Summer Woman. Shapard has been featured in such national magazines as Ladies' Home Journal, Woman's Day, McCalls, Bride's Magazine, Complete Woman, Women Today.

Anne Brafford Fritz, Beta/Indiana, led her division of AT&T when it received the Malcolm Baldrige Award as the finest quality workplace of any company in the United States. Fritz was one of several executives invited to the White House to be honored by President Clinton.

Anne Hopkins, Chi/Syracuse, will serve as the new provost and executive vice-president for academic affairs at Miami University (Ohio). Hopkins formerly served as vice-president for arts, sciences, and engineering at the University of Minnesota.

Pat Markley, Beta Gamma/Colorado State, and her husband, Gene, have been awarded the Hope Award for outstanding community devotion by the national Multiple Sclerosis Society. Markley served as Panhellenic executive secretary at Colorado State for 13 years. She also served as area chairwoman for the Community Chest of the United Fund, as a board member of the Fort Collins Country Club and founded the Fort Collins Children's Theatre.

Gayle Probst, P/Nebraska, was awarded membership in the prestigious Coldwell Banker Platinum Circle for her real estate sales during 1994. Probst, one of the top ten sales associates in the Coldwell Banker Palos Verdes Peninsula office, has been the recipient of the firm's Distinguished Achievement Award.

Susan Molloy Hubbard, Gamma Zeta/Connecticut, associate director of the National Cancer Institute, accepted Vice President Gore's Hammer Award for the National Cancer Institute's International Cancer Information Center. The Hammer Award is given to agencies that strive to make a government that works better and costs less. The International Cancer Information Center received the award for innovations that simplify health professionals' access to cancer information available at the National Cancer Institute.

Sue Ann Tempero, Rho/Nebraska, has been appointed chairwoman of the Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services (DACOWITS). Tempero was appointed to DACOWITS in 1993 and serves on the 1994 Executive Committee as vice-chairwoman of the subcommittee on quality of life. Currently she is vice-president of human resources for The Des Moines Register and certified as a senior professional in human resources.

Viola Moore, Beta Gamma/Colorado State, and her husband, John, have been honored by the Fort Collins Kiwanis Club as the Community Builders of the Year. The award recognizes residents who donate their time, talents, and energies to make Fort Collins a better place to live. This is the first time in 50 years the award has gone to two people. Moore's work includes serving on the Foothills Gateway board of directors and the board of the Colorado State University Alumni Foundation, as well as volunteering for Respite Care and United Day Care. One of the couple's most conspicuous projects is Harmony House. The Moores donated the 84-year-old farmhouse to CASA, to be used as a visitation facility for children involved in the court system in dependency, neglect, and other child-abuse cases. Viola and John Moore are trustees and cofounders of The Family Foundation, which has given financial support to almost every nonprofit entity in the city.

Stephanie Olin, Epsilon Theta/Stetson, was named program director for her local CASA program, the State of Florida's Second Judicial Circuit Guardian Ad Litem Program. The program coordinates 300 volunteer guardians who represent the best interests of abused and neglected children, as well as volunteer attorneys who represent the best interest of children involved in complex divorces or domestic violence litigations. Olin also serves as advisory board chairman for the Beta Nu Chapter at Florida State University.

SNAPSHOTS

Judy Ikenberry, Alpha Chi/Purdue, wife of University of Illinois President Stanley Ikenberry, received the Distinguished Service Medallion, the highest service award given from the University of Illinois Board of Trustees. Ikenberry has served on the Illinois Arts Council, the Women's Board of the Chicago Field Museum and Voices for Illinois Children. She also has worked with the University of Illinois Foundation and trustees and is a member and leader in a number of national higher education groups.

Marjorie Broderick, Upsilon/Minnesota, has been elected president of the Philadelphia chapter of the American Association of University Women. She is a retired associate vice-president of Temple University.

Maria Elena Marcello, Delta Kappa/Louisiana State, publications designer for Loyola University, has been recognized by the University and College of Music tabloid newsletter and the Alumni Gala Logo. Marcello's winning designs were two of 134 chosen among 1,250 entries submitted. Before coming to Loyola University, she worked with various design companies, including Brocato International. Marcello has worked for Loyola since 1993 while remaining the principle for Marcello Design. This year she has received several excellence awards from New Orleans chapters of the International Association of Business Communicators, the Public Relations Society of America, Women in Communications, Inc., and the Art Directors and Designers Association.

Barbara Hackman Franklin, Beta Phi/Penn State, has been named chairman of the Heritage Foundation's American Trader Initiative Advisory Council. The Council will form an integral part of the Heritage Foundation's ongoing efforts to promote the global expansion of free trade. Franklin is the former US Commerce Secretary.

Leslie Lott, Delta Theta/Florida, has been selected for the 1995-96 Edition of The Best Lawyers of America. Lott is a lawyer in Coral Gables, Florida, and she serves as immediate past chair of the Intellectual Property Law Committee of The Florida Bar. She serves on the Board of Directors of the International Trademark Law Association and practices intellectual property law with the firm of Lott & Friendland.

Christina Habib, Zeta Omicron/Wake Forest, was honored with the Thomas K. Hearn Jr. Scholarship for Excellence in Leadership and Service. Habib received the humanitarian award from the Winston-Salem Human Relations Commission.

Kristen Thall Peters, Omicron/UC-Berkeley, has joined Fitzgerald, Abbott & Beardsley, a 27-attorney, Oakland-based law firm. Peters will be practicing environmental law as an associate. She formerly practiced with the firm of Aguirre and Associates, where her concentration was on the development of environmental compliance programs for corporate clients. Peters also specializes in litigation involving, CERCLA, State Superfund Act, ground-water contamination, underground and above-ground storage tank removal and remediation, flow control, and recycling issues.

Jan Taylor, Alpha/DePauw, became the first woman and only the second person from Northwest Ohio to enter the three-year-old Ohio Golf Hall of Fame. Taylor served as executive director of the Toledo District Golf Association from 1976-86. She was the first woman to serve as president of the International Association of Golf Administrators. Taylor has also served as executive director of the Women's Ohio State Golf Association, and she ran the Ohio Women's State Amateur Championship. She's been president of the Ohio Senior Women's Golf Association since 1987.

Britta Hoekenga, Zeta Nu/UC-Davis, has been honored as the 1995 Greek Woman of the Year. Hoekenga, with a 3.85 GPA, has been on the dean's list every quarter and serves as president of Order of Omega. She is cochairperson of the Campus Union and Recreation Board, president of Cal Student Alumni Network, and student manager at the Memorial Union Information Center. Hoekenga also serves on the Greek Conduct Board.

Mary Breeden, Gamma Iota/Kentucky, illuminated the book Revelations, Visions of the Second Coming with calligraphy that took her eight years to complete. The book reads as one long poem based on the sequence of apocalyptic passages and prophecies from the Old and New Testaments. Breeden's calligraphy is similar to that used in the Book of Kells.

This Little Light, a young professionals' support organization for Children's Hospital Los Angeles, held a New Year's Eve Gala. This Little Light was founded by Ranlyn Tilly Hill, BE/UCLA, after her brother Randy, a drowning victim, was treated at Children's Hospital Los Angeles. Hill was so impressed with the quality of care her brother received that she established the first group of recent college graduates and young professionals to work on behalf of the Hospital.

Kappa Alpha Theta... Renew the Vision...125 Years and Counting! The past year was very special to Kappa Alpha Theta during the commemoration of the 125th Anniversary. College chapters and alumnae chapters and clubs celebrated the anniversary as part of Founders Day, initiation ceremonies, alumnae relations, service projects, and social events. Thetas around the world reflected on their membership in the Fraternity by wearing black and gold ribbons behind their badges on January 27, 1995, the international observance day of this historic occasion.

During the celebration of this landmark event, Theta was also setting the course for the future through strategic planning, a process begun in January 1994. Specific goals, objectives, and strategies outlined in the plan focus on program and institutional infrastructure. Program goals refer to the activities and services Theta offers to its members, chapters, and clubs. These include: educational programs, membership development, chapter/club support, and communications. Infrastructure goals refer to the systems necessary to carry out Theta programs, including governance and management, fund development, physical plant needs, financial management, and a quality improvement strategy.

To ensure that current and future programs effectively meet the needs of members while reflecting the principles of the Fraternity, Theta will develop evaluation tools and implement an evaluation of all existing programs and any new initiatives. Current programs will be maintained at current (operating) levels until the evaluation is completed and appropriate new programs are developed and implemented.

As we look to the future, we can renew the vision that our Founders set forth. To the valor and devotion of these women, we owe the privilege of sisterhood in Kappa Alpha Theta. With the continued support of all members, we continue to put Kappa Alpha Theta in the forefront and to stand for the values and ideals that form the lasting foundation on which our Founders built Kappa Alpha Theta.

Fraternity Programs

Talking About Alcohol

The Talking About Alcohol (TAA) program used a new delivery format in 1994-95 in response to feedback from participants. The former four-member undergraduate teaching team was replaced by a two-woman teaching team (a TAA program coordinator and an alumna volunteer). A total of five alumnae are now trained to facilitate the program with four more expected to be trained next year. TAA Program Coordinator Candice Baumgarten, Psi/Wisconsin, says, "The new delivery format gives chapters a higher quality experience and far more consistency. We have received very positive feedback from the program this year."

Objectives for the future, as outlined in the Strategic Plan, include evaluating the program with an objective of increasing participation in the next academic year, training additional alumnae to deliver the program, and exploring and implementing a program for alumnae.

TAA 1994-95 Statistics:

Chapters receiving TAA program: 23
(an increase of 6 chapters from 1993-94)

Number of actual/possible participants: 1233/1877

Percent participation: 65.7%

Participation during Fall 1994: 56.8%

Participation during Spring 1995: 76.5%

Pre-test average: 38.9%

Post-test average: 76.2%

Average improvement: 37.0%

Consider reducing quantity/frequency choices as a result of program: 37.6%

Quantity/frequency choice low/within low-risk guidelines: 22.1%

Grand Convention 1994

More than 600 Thetas from 122 college chapters, 91 alumnae chapters, and 170 alumnae clubs gathered at the Scottsdale Princess Resort for the Fraternity's Grand Convention in June 1994. Members spent four days and evenings debating legislation, discussing education programming, attending workshops and awards banquets, and sharing Theta friendship.

Delegates at the '94 Grand Convention discussed and debated several changes to the laws, ranging from terminology to the time of initiation of new members. Collegiate delegates attended workshops on officers, ritual, risk management, scholarship, member recruitment, incentive programs, and effective presentations. Alumnae workshops addressed membership, programming and communication, fund-raising ideas, officer structure, and Job Bank USA.

LeaderShape

Kappa Alpha Theta continued its partnership with the LeaderShape Institute by sending six Thetas to the week-long leadership experience in 1994. LeaderShape is held at Allerton Park in Monticello, Ill., with 100 acres of woods set aside for the Team Challenge Course, which provides nontraditional experiences and insights into the group problem-solving process. Family clusters of eight to 12 students and a faculty facilitator provide support and an open environment for learning to work with people of different leadership styles. In addition to learning hands-on leadership techniques, the college-age men and women gain exposure to corporate executives who share their lives and respond to questions about leadership, careers, and values.

Kappa Alpha Theta has seen positive results in chapter management by the presidents who have attended LeaderShape. Elements of the LeaderShape experience were implemented at the 1994 Grand Convention and the 1995 Leadership Conference.

Balanced Woman Member Education Program

Results of a 1994 survey indicate that the college chapters are using and benefiting from various components of the Balanced Woman Member Education Program. Theta's ongoing educational program, which provides 29 weeks of chapter programming on issues facing women. The program focuses on four major areas: member orientation (into Theta), health maintenance, leadership skills, and Theta heritage. The flexible format of the program allows the individual chapters to creatively tailor the workshops to meet the needs of their members on topics of health, leadership skills, scholarship, sisterhood, and much more.

New "cluster" activities to help members learn about one another, share with one another, and enhance Theta sisterhood were added to "Not For Ourselves Alone," the Member Orientation Module of the Balanced Woman Member Education Program. Through this module, new members successfully assimilate into the chapter experience and quickly become an integral part of the day-to-day operations of the chapter.

In the future, Theta will focus on meeting the objectives outlined in the strategic plan which include creating a topic selection time line, including areas of concern identified by collegians (crime/violence, career development, campus safety, personal development, eating disorders), creating and implementing a promotional strategy for each educational component of the program, and updating the Member Orientation Module. ■

Scholarship

Scholarship has been the cornerstone of Kappa Alpha Theta since it was established in 1870. Theta encourages high scholastic achievement and the pursuit of knowledge through innovative programming and approximately $200,000 in scholarships awarded annually by the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation. During the 1994 calendar year, more than 1,000 undergraduate members achieved straight As.

In 1993-94, 73.5% of the college chapters were above the All Sorority Average. A specific objective outlined in the strategic plan states: Improve scholarship so that all chapters exceed the All Sorority Average by the end of the 1999-2000 academic year. Several important strategies are being implemented to increase the percentage and meet the objective by the year 2000. ■

Chapter Consultants

The first Kappa Alpha Theta chapter consultant visit was made in 1960. (At that time, chapter consultants were called traveling secretaries.) Since then, 231 women have served the Fraternity in this capacity including the seven women who served in 1994-95. These women have traveled across the United States and Canada and have continued to serve as a primary link between college chapters and the Fraternity. "In the past ten years, the program has gained visibility and taken a more assertive stand," explains Director of Chapter Services Betsy Sierk, Beta Omicron/Iowa. The Chapter Consultant Program is fully funded by a grant from the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

A chapter consultant visits as many as 30 chapters for five- to seven-day visits in one year. She evaluates all aspects of each chapter, offers suggestions and encouragement, and carries innovative ideas from one chapter to another. The consultants meet with chapter officers, the executive committee, the advisory board and facility corporation officers and the Greek advisor. Rather than making several chapter visits, a consultant may also be based at one chapter to help colonize or help solve especially challenging problems.

One consultant from 1994-95 will return and join four other recent graduates for the 1995-96 academic year. Theta's chapter consultants are loyal and dedicated, and many of them continue in their service to the Fraternity as international and district officers. ■

An Influence for Good

"... and socially the widest influence for good." These words from our creed attest to the dedication of Thetas to the spirit of philanthropy in our communities. The Foundation estimates that Thetas gave more than $200,000 and volunteered hundreds of thousands of hours to community projects in 1993.

The inspiration for much of this dedication of time and money is CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates), Kappa Alpha Theta's official Fraternity philanthropy since 1989. CASA was created in 1977 by David Soukup, a Superior Court Judge in Seattle, Wash., to ensure that abused and neglected children had their own advocates in the juvenile justice system.

Soukup explains, "As a judge, I needed someone who could tell me what was best for each child—from the child's viewpoint. That's what CASA does."

There are 592 local CASA programs throughout the United States and in the Virgin Islands. Last year, approximately 37,000 volunteers spoke for an estimated 128,000 abused and neglected children in court.

CASA volunteers receive training through their local CASA programs. Once assigned to a child's case, the volunteer researches the background of the case, visits the child's home, interviews family members as well as the child, and makes an independent recommendation to the judge. CASA is endorsed by the US Justice Department, the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, and the American Bar Association.

CASA programs are sometimes known on a local basis by the names Guardian ad Litem, Child Advocates, or Voices for Children. A grant from the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation to the National CASA Association, as well as federal grants and support from other organizations, helps fund support services for these local CASA programs.

Foundation Trustee Joyce Harrison Honeyman, Beta Zeta/Oklahoma State, sits on the Board of the National CASA Association. "A safe, permanent home should not be a child's distant dream. Both Kappa Alpha Theta and CASA are stronger for having this shared bond."

Records show that abused and neglected children in the CASA program have a better chance of living in safe, permanent, and loving homes; are moved between foster homes less frequently; are more likely to have their cases reviewed regularly by the courts; and are more likely to receive treatment through community services.

Thetas support local CASA programs by holding fund-raisers, staffing offices, serving on local CASA boards, and serving as CASAs themselves. CASA volunteer Nicole Karch, Beta Kappa/Drake, writes, "This has been the most rewarding experience of my life, and I have Theta to thank for much of it."

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation just completed its third two-year grant of $100,000 to the National CASA Association. At a recent Trustee meeting, the amount of biennial support was increased to $120,000. Theta grant dollars will support reproduction and distribution of a CASA informational video and TV PSA hosted by actor Tom Skerritt, a traveling display for conferences, brochures and information packets for volunteers and organizations, development of an on-line computer information resource, publications and newsletters, the toll-free information number, and the Kappa Alpha Theta Program Director of the Year Award.

"Our association with and support of CASA is a source of pride to Theta and a source of personal fulfillment to many members," says Nancy Frick, Director of Development. Donations to support Theta's grant to CASA can be sent to the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation, 8740 Founders Road, Indianapolis, IN 46268. For information on how to become involved with your local CASA program, call the Development Department at Headquarters, 1-800-KAO-1870. ■

Remembering Anna Margaret Ross Alexander

by Shannon Alexander, Gamma/Butler

Anna Margaret Ross Alexander taught me more about life than I can put on paper. She was a wife, mother, grandmother, friend, philanthropist, civic leader, Purdue alumna, and a Theta.

Until I pledged Theta, I hadn't realized how extraordinary my grandma was. When she received the Twin Star award at Indianapolis State Day, I was filled with pride and amazement at all she had accomplished. Until then I had thought her greatest accomplishment was having near-perfect attendance at her grandchildren's baseball games and school performances.

Grandma valued history and was optimistic about the future; yet she lived in the present and valued each day. Grandma would stand up for anything or anyone she believed in, regardless of popular opinion. And she expressed unconditional love for her family and friends every day.

The day Grandma died, she spent the morning with Grandpa, took my sister to kindergarten, and spent the afternoon reading scholarship applications at Headquarters. She was with people she loved and working for an organization she believed in strongly.

Grandma's passion for life and compassion for people will live forever through those whose lives she touched.

Alexander served on the Indianapolis school board and the Marion County Board of Tax Review; she was also involved in many other community activities. She was a generous donor to the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation and was serving as a Trustee at the time of her death.

Anna Margaret Alexander, her husband, John, and granddaughter Katie.

Grants from the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation support National CASA, and Thetas have also donated hundreds of thousands of volunteer hours to local CASA programs. # The New Rush: Times Are Changing

Rush. As members of a Greek organization, we've all been through it. And whether we participated in rush seven years ago or thirty-seven years ago, our memories of singing songs, staging skits, and clapping and cheering are probably fairly similar.

But in the past few years, rush has changed. "It used to be that you'd have formal rush, you'd make quota, and that would be it," says Membership Regional Director (MRD) Carrie Dieterle, Gamma Delta/Georgia. "Now it's different. It's an evolution that we have to adapt to."

Evolution of Rush

This evolution has been prompted by changes in colleges and universities and among the students who attend them. The following social trends have had particular impact on rush during the 1990s. •Some universities now hold rush during the second term or late in the first term because they want students' first loyalty to be to the school. They also believe that deferring rush helps student make more informed, intelligent decisions. •The decline in students participating in rush puts pressure on chapters with high operating expenses. They must keep their numbers up to maintain their large facilities. •Seventy percent of college women work twenty or more hours a week. Fraternities and sororities must make Greek life affordable for these women. •The college student population is older and more ethnically diverse. Fraternities and sororities must make membership valuable for these students.

No-Frills Rush

To help Greek women's organizations respond to changing times, the National Panhellenic Council (NPC) recommended in 1991 that member organizations develop a no-frills rush policy.

more time to get to know rushees. They have the opportunity to develop a personal connection with potential members while stressing the ideals of scholarship, service, and sisterhood. And rushees, rather than simply sitting and watching Thetas perform, get to know Thetas and learn what the Fraternity is all about. "A lot of the members are realizing that they don't want to just do skits, they don't want to stand up and dance and sing. They want to talk instead," says Westermann. "And the big rah-rah parties and cheerleading sessions don't really appeal to 18-year-olds anymore. They want something a little more laid-back and sophisticated."

Guidelines for no-frills rush emphasize conversation rather than singing and information rather than entertainment. Explains Patti Westermann, Delta Zeta/Emory, MRD, "We no longer have skits on the first day of rush. NPC also encourages a cap on rush expenditures. Therefore, chapters can cut down on decorations and refreshments. NPC encourages shortening the length of the skits and having a review of the skits to make sure they match the context of what we're trying to project."

"It's a real de-emphasis on the show and the fluff and more emphasis on conversation," says Dieterle.

With a no-frills rush, Thetas have

Informal Rush and Continuous Open Bidding (COB)

Informal rush and continuous open bidding are fairly recent phenomena on most college campuses. Participating in both types of rush allows Theta chapters to correct any discrepancy between their quotas and their totals. "When you look at five years ago and then look at today, the number of women enrolled in rush has gone down by about 10 percent every year," Westermann states. This means that a chapter's quota—the number set by the college Panhellenic that each fraternity may pledge during Formal Rush—may not be sufficient to get a chapter to total—the allowable chapter size determined by the college Panhellenic. "When chapters are below total, they may not have enough money; they may not have enough officers," says Westermann. "Being below total hurts a chapter all around."

Informal rush is typically held during the term in which formal rush is not held. Informal rush is sponsored by the college Panhellenic and is much less involved than formal rush. There are a few days of parties, and the parties are less structured and more informal. "Beta Gamma/Colorado State had a game party during informal rush," recalls Carrie Dieterle. "It was very casual—they just played board games with the rushees."

Unlike rush, continuous open bidding (COB) can take place at any time. If a chapter is below total, a chapter can offer a bid to any eligible woman on campus. COB is not sponsored by college Panhellenics, but chapters must adhere to a set of simple guidelines. Within these guidelines, chapters are free to be as creative as they wish. "COB can include meeting women for lunch. It can include inviting them to parties and inviting them to study breaks," says Westermann. "It's very loose, very natural."

According to Vice-President Membership Helen Edwards Woodward, Alpha Omicron/Oklahoma, many alumnae have misconceptions about informal rush and continuous open bidding. "Alumnae often think that having these types of rush means a chapter's not doing well, and that's not the case. Times are changing, and even successful chapters have to rush all year. Most of our chapters will have to do COB."

Weighted Ranking System

Theta's Weighted Ranking System (WRS) is an updated approach to ranking that was developed in response to a reassessment of Theta's traditional rush programming. WRS is a computerized voting system in which rushees are ranked by criteria established by the college chapter members. It allows collegians to focus on rush strategies and encourages a positive, unifying atmosphere.

"Weighted ranking puts the focus on the most qualified women going through rush. It identifies them early and uses the alumnae references to help do that," Patti Westermann explains. "It takes the negativity out of rush. The chapters are only looking at and striving for and thinking about the women they want in their chapter, instead of the women they have to cut."

The goals of WRS are to invite the most qualified women possible to membership; to offer the benefits of Fraternity membership to as many as possible; to select members in the most positive, efficient, and effective manner; to disappoint as few rushees and members as possible; and to respect the rights of all persons involved in the rush process.

"Weighted ranking has evolved a lot. We've worked with chapters, and when something hasn't worked, we've figured out what we can do to make it better," says Westermann.

"Chapters that were very staunch supporters of their old way of doing things have come to love weighted ranking. The University of Georgia is a good example. They loved their old system; it was very successful for them. When they switched to weighted ranking, they said they would never have believed that they would like it so much."

Membership Regional Directors

To provide more direct guidance for the membership and rush programs of Theta chapters, the Fraternity created five membership regional director positions in 1993. Each MRD is paired with a college regional director to monitor the rush and membership success of about 30 college chapters. When there is a question or concern with a college chapter's rush, the MRD works with the chapter's local rush and membership advisers to resolve the situation. "Our job is to work with any chapter on any kind of rush help they might need," says Carrie Dieterle.

In addition to Carrie Dieterle and Patti Westermann, Theta's membership regional directors are Sheryl Holland

McGarity, Gamma Delta/Georgia; Cindy Green Gauf, Delta Omega/Texas A&M; and Peggy Jo Cook Coker, Beta Epsilon/Oregon State. For a listing of the MRD's addresses and the districts they serve, please refer to "Directory of Officers" on page 36.

Finding Sisters

College campuses are changing, and the rush process is changing with them. But no matter how much the externals of Kappa Alpha Theta rush change, the underlying concept remains the same: making friends and finding sisters who will make good Thetas. ■

You Can Help!

Do send letters of reference for women you like and think would make good Thetas. The spring issue of The Magazine contains a reference form; the rush personnel directory begins on page 20 of this issue of The Magazine.

Do encourage Greek membership to the young women you know who are going to college. Your Theta friendships and warm memories are a testimonial to the benefits of membership.

Do support a college chapter by volunteering during rush. Call 1-800-KAO-1870 and ask for the name of the rush adviser of the college chapter nearest you.

Do respect the confidentiality of the college chapters. The membership adviser will no longer call alumnae to advise them of the status of any rushee, including a legacy.

Do communicate appropriately. Calls and gifts to promote rushees are prohibited and, due to the objectivity of WRS, are ineffective after rush begins.

RUSH PERSONNEL 1995 DIRECTORY

Why not tell a college chapter about a young friend who would make a good Theta. Write a letter of reference TODAY!

WHAT TO SEND

Fill out a rush reference for each potential rushee. These forms may be obtained from: the spring issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine, Kappa Alpha Theta Central Office, 1-800-526-1870; a Rush Reference Board Chairman or Area Rush Representative.

Complete information about the rushee's qualifications is essential, and a picture of her is highly desirable. Get both from her or her family IF SHE'S A FRIEND OF YOURS; however, members must not call or visit a rushee or her family whom they do not know to request information or a picture.

REMEMBER PANHEL RULES

Once rush has begun, alumnae as well as collegiate members from other campuses must not contact rushees; furthermore, alumnae may not contact members of the college chapters to inquire about the progress of rush. Calls must be addressed to the chapter's membership adviser.

Alumnae are also prohibited from sending food or gifts in any form to the chapter on behalf of a rushee. Breaking Panhellenic rules may cause the chapter to be penalized.

RETURN THE FAVOR

Remember that an alumna made your membership possible by writing a letter of reference for you. Now it's your turn. Send your letter of reference today!

RUSH PERSONNEL DIRECTORY INSTRUCTIONS

Send references to the rushee's hometown rush personnel. Names and addresses can be obtained by contacting your local Rush Reference Board Chairman (RRBC) or Authorized Rush Representative (ARR). Send references to the local RRBC. If there is no reference board for the rushee's hometown, send references to the ARR. If there is no ARR, send references to the Reference Chairman (RC) for the college chapter she is attending. These lists are included on the following pages.

Call 1-800-526-1870 with questions.

Unauthorized use of this mailing list is prohibited.

The (Antiques) Show Goes On

You wouldn't be surprised to find rare books, continental pottery, nineteenth century furniture, and Southwest-ern artifacts at an antiques show. In fact, you'd expect to see such things at a show that is considered one of the top three antiques shows in the United States. You might, however, be surprised to discover that this show is held not in New York City or Los Angeles, but in Houston, Texas.

The 1995 Theta Charity Antiques Show will run from Wednesday, September 20, to Sunday, September 24, in Houston's Astrodome. More than 10,000 antiques enthusiasts, collectors, and dealers will view and purchase thousands of antique decorative items. The Theta Antiques Show, which is staged entirely by members of the Kappa Alpha Theta Houston Alumnae Chapter, is the oldest ongoing antiques show in the country.

Since its inception in 1952, the Antiques Show has donated more than $200,000 to Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation scholarships and raised some $2.5 million for cultural, educational, and medical organizations in Houston.

In addition to exhibits by more than 50 antiques dealers from the United States and England, the 1995 Antiques Show will also feature lectures by such experts as Mark Hampton, furniture designer, and David McFadden, curator of the Cooper-Hewitt Museum. Another show highlight, The Petite Museum, is a loan exhibit that will showcase antiques from private collections and museums.

A new feature of the 1995 Show is the Weekend Excursion out-of-town group package. This travel package includes the preview party; guided tours of the antiques show; all show lectures; visits to two private homes with renowned antiques collections; a tour of the Bayou Bend Collection and Gardens; a dinner; a tea; and optional visits to museums, arts performances, and more. For more information about the Weekend Excursion, including group rates at the Ritz-Carlton, interested Thetas and other antiques enthusiasts can contact Linda Wukasz, 713-621-0830.

"Hermes: Storyteller on Porcelain," an exhibition of historic Hermes designs, was unveiled at the kick-off tea for the forty-third Theta Show. Cheryl Cathriner Fossler, AΘ/Texas, Sally Gresham Tinkham, H/Michigan, and Mary Kay Fennell Mohrmann, ΔK/Louisiana State, admire one of the tea services on display.

We Need Your Help!

Speaker's Bureau: Kappa Alpha Theta would like to develop a list of members willing to serve as speakers, facilitators, or panel discussion members for Theta meetings, including Grand Conventions, Leadership Conferences and regional/district meetings. If you are interested, please send a brief profile outlining your skills and specialties to Fraternity Headquarters.

Magazine costs: Printing and postage costs continue to rise, making it more and more difficult to provide members with a high-quality quarterly magazine. In the past year, the staff has taken steps to decrease costs; however, the overall expense to the Fraternity remains high.

We realize that members may have different interest levels in The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine. We would like to accommodate those interest levels while controlling magazine production costs and helping members maintain their Theta link. Members may choose to continue to receive four issues of The Magazine each year, or they may choose to receive only the spring issue (which will be a comprehensive annual overview). If you would prefer to receive only one issue of The Magazine each year, please write to Fraternity Headquarters, attention Magazine Editor, and indicate this desire. Each year, you will have the option of maintaining the annual subscription or switching to a quarterly again.

There is no subscription fee for The Magazine; Thetas wishing to help defray publication expenses may do so by sending voluntary contributions to the attention of Karen Alter, Director of Communications. ■

THETA

MAGAZINE

How do you feel about *The Kappa
Alpha Theta
Magazine?

- ☐ When The Magazine arrives, I sit right down and read it cover to cover.
- ☐ When The Magazine arrives, I add it to the pile of mail I intend to read when I have time.
- ☐ When The Magazine arrives, it goes straight into the recycling bin.

For 110 years, the Fraternity has produced The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine on a quarterly basis. We have all benefited from maintaining a connection to the Fraternity through its pages. Recently, printing and postage costs have risen dramatically, making it more and more difficult to produce a high-quality quarterly publication. And we realize that Thetas have greater demands on their time than ever before and may have different levels of interest in The Magazine. We would like to accommodate those interest levels while controlling magazine production costs and helping members maintain their Theta link.

We Need Your Help!
Please take a moment of your time to think about The Magazine and read the information inside
this cover letter.

Times Have Changed

When each of us was initiated, it was understood that we would receive a subscription to The Magazine for life. When the lifetime subscription was implemented, no one could possibly have imagined that our mailing list would now comprise 120,000 members, nor could anyone have foreseen the recent dramatic increases in postage and printing.

Since January 1, 1995, postage costs have increased approximately 10 percent; this follows a 1991 increase of 22 percent. In addition, the past year has brought spiralling paper costs: The price of publication-grade sheets has increased 30 percent, and industry experts predict that this trend could continue until 1998. The Magazine currently accounts for 16 percent of overall Fraternity expenses and 35 percent of program expenses.

Cost Control

Postage and paper prices are completely outside our control. During the past year, The Magazine staff has taken steps to reduce other expenses, and we continue to investigate and implement additional cost-saving measures.

We now believe that the most effective and equitable method of decreasing both production and postage costs is to decrease the number of magazines printed and mailed, based on the interest levels and needs of each member. So we are offering you a choice.

You Can Help

You may choose to continue to receive four issues of The Magazine each year, or you may choose to receive only the spring issue (which will be a comprehensive annual overview). Each year, you will have the option of maintaining the annual subscription or switching to a quarterly again.

If you would like to continue to receive four issues of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine each year, please complete the tear-out card on the back of this cover letter and mail it to Headquarters.

If you prefer to receive only the spring issue each year, you need do nothing. We will still offer The Magazine to our members at no charge.
